2.3.2 - Teachers use ICT enabled tools for effective teaching-learning process. Write description in maximum of 200 words

To make teaching and learning more effective and learner centric, teaching methods such as group discussions, field visit, debates and seminar presentations are encouraged. Students are encouraged to take summer training or on the job training. Seminars papers are prepared by both teacher and student. Practical in science departments involve individual as well as group work under the guidance of the teachers. Poster presentation and power point presentations on relevant topics using overhead projectors, LCD projectors and smart board make the teaching process more interesting, effective and student centred. Free internet access in the library and in some departments promotes the habit of selflearning among the students. Teaching in class room by teachers is also made interactive by allowing the students to ask questions followed by discussion and clarifying doubts raised by the students. In course of teaching, teachers also frequently ask questions to find whether the students have understood or not. Problems from different books and from different entrance examinations related to the topics are solved in the class room so as to improve the knowledge of students.

2.5 - Evaluation Process and Reforms

2.5.1 - Mechanism of internal assessment is transparent and robust in terms of frequency and mode. Write description within 200 words.

Mechanism of Internal Assessment , its evaluation and interactions with the students by their respective subject teachers on scheme of valuation i.e. marking pattern plays a vital role in the student performance in examinations. The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of the college is aware of this fact hence giving due importance on Internal Assessment of the students. Transparency in evaluation, interface discourse between examiners and examinees after evaluation of answer sheets of Internal examinations is another vital part of effective teaching and learning. The learners are informed about the programme of Internal Assessment 1 week before the commencement of Internal Examinations. At the end of the teaching of every chapter, students are provided with number of important questions as per the CBCs question pattern and the procedure of answering the questions. They are made aware of the scheme of evaluation of each question. So that they can write the answers to the questions in a befitting manner. As a result the learners can secure good marks in the Internal Examinations. This process motivates the learners and becomes easy for them in presenting answers in an appropriate manner to the given questions at the end semester examinations. In the meanwhile the HEI has prepared its own question bank on each chapter for the use of students. The question bank is made available for the students in each department, so that they can refer the question bank as and when they desire.

2.5.2 - Mechanism to deal with internal examination related grievances is transparent, time-bound and efficient

Generally the very next day of the end of the mid semester (internal) examination, the central valuation is conducted as per the decision of the college examination committee. If some cases are reached about the absence of some students, they are informed by a re-notification and the exam is reconducted for those students within a week as per the guidelines given by Department of Higher Education, Odisha. In some other cases, after the publication of end semester examination results, some misinterpretation of mid semester results are brought to notice by students. In that case, the examination committee has played a very crucial role to correct the data, send it to the university and republication of the results of those students.

2.6 - Student Performance and Learning Outcomes

2.6.1 - Teachers and students are aware of the stated Programme and course outcomes of the Programmes offered by the institution.

The college offers three Undergraduate Programmes such as Arts, Science and Commerce. Arts (Economics, English, History, , Odia, Philosophy, and Political Science), Science (Botany, Chemistry, Mathematics, Physics, and Zoology) and Commerce. From 2019-20, the Higher Education Department, Govt. of Odisha, implemented model syllabus in the state universities and colleges affiliated to them. The college has been following the model syllabus for all its programmes. Every teacher follows the model syllabus. Our teaching faculties are appointed as chief/assistant/sole examiners for evaluations activities of semester examinations. Since the college does not have its own curriculum, it strictly follows the prescribed model syllabus and conducts internal examinations at regular intervals at the undergraduate level and the end-semester examination is conducted as per the Common Minimum Standard prepared by the Higher Education department, Govt. of Odisha. Our college has clearly stated learning outcomes in the vision and mission statement of college calendar. The college has also defined student learning outcomes in terms of pass percentage of students in University Examinations. Faculty is best suited to determine the intended educational outcomes of their academic programs and activities, how to assess these outcomes, and how to use the results for program development and improvement is a part of student evaluation. The results of Outcome Assessment are used to evaluate the effectiveness of academic programmes and activities, and student services, and not the performance of individual faculty or staff. Faculty use the information collected to develop and improve academic programmes.

7.1.9 - Sensitization of students and employees of the Institution to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens

As the people are not much politically educated, they lack the basic idea of their legal rights, liberty, equality, which allows them to live a free and justified life, the institution organizes various programmes from time to time to aware and sensitize the students and staffs about their constitutional values. Therefore, the college observes Human Rights Day, Voter's Day and Constitution Day every year. The children those are deprived of education they are easily attracted towards criminal activities. Women are still victims of domestic violence, illegally migration (by agents) in search of jobs, workplace harassment, gender disparity in case of education and wage. Therefore, the institution arranges awareness programmes on human rights, child rights and rights of women. The success of democracy depends on the responsible citizens which is possible by casting their vote in a free and fair manner. Hence, to aware the citizens the power of their votes in a democratic country and their legal rights to choose the appropriate representative, the college organizes Voter's Day every year. The college observes Constitution Day each year. The constitution of India gives every citizen a secured and dignified life. It strengthens each individual of every section and class of the society. It protects individuals from the parochial and arbitrary activities against their will..

Presently, the college is being a full-fledged one with the faculties of Arts, Science & Commerce.
- The Crest of Adivasi college shows a chant, "PARAM BRAHMA PARAM DHAMA PAVITRAM PARAMAM BHAVAN" In Bhagabat Gita, Arjuna said to Sri Krishan: You are the Supreme Brahman, the ultimate, the supreme abode and purifier, the absolute Truth and the eternal divine person. It also indicates the perfect knowledge can be obtained by the grace of Supreme lord which is not possible by so called academic education. There are different icons in the crest OMM- Brahma, Sun, Stars & moon, Vedas, Lotus-, Bow-, temple mountain rivers, etc. indicate the serenity of the College Campus. The main thrust is to impart quality education to tribal people of the district.
